COREY SCOTT, CEO

Comments from Our CEO

Midwest Dairy farmers, as I prepare to step into a new role serving dairy farmers nationwide as President and CEO of Dairy Management Inc., I want to pause and express my sincere gratitude to the people who have made my time at Midwest Dairy so meaningful.

Over the past two years, I have had the privilege of working alongside dedicated dairy farmers, passionate staff, engaged board leaders, and valued partners across our region. Every conversation, farm visit, meeting, and collaboration reinforced what makes this industry so special: people who care deeply about one another and about the future of dairy.

Together, we have strengthened trust in dairy, built meaningful connections with consumers, and elevated the voices of the farm families who make our work possible. I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished and even more inspired by the opportunities ahead.

While I am excited for this next chapter, leaving Midwest Dairy is bittersweet. This organization and the people behind it have left a lasting impact on me, both professionally and personally. I will always be grateful for the support, encouragement, and friendships I have gained along the way.

As I begin serving dairy farmers across the country through Dairy Management Inc., I do so with confidence in the strength of Midwest Dairy and its continued leadership. The passion, innovation, and commitment I have witnessed throughout this region will continue driving dairy forward.

Thank you for your trust, your partnership, and your dedication to our industry. It has been an honor to serve alongside you.

With immense gratitude,
Corey Scott
